Welcome to Tyresö library!

Reading and literature attracts all citizens, the library has particular focus on stimulating interest in literature and reading for young children and their parents. Media, information and services are made available on the basis of demand, but also with the aim to surprise and show something unexpected.

Excerpt from the library plan for Tyresö

This is your library!

The media in the library belongs to all citizens of Tyresö. You can borrow books, audiobooks, newspapers and magazines in both Swedish and other languages. You can download e-books and listen to e-audiobooks on your computer, mobile or tablet. Via The Media Jukebox you can download media in various formats directly to your media player. We answer questions about everything. Please feel free to ask us questions via the web or e-mail, the address is: biblioteket@tyreso.se, and we are available on facebook and instagram. At the library, you can also find information from and about the municipality of Tyresö.

The library is always open

Our library facilities are available with generous opening hours. Through the web, the library is open all the time. The address is: <http://bibliotek.tyreso.se>. You can access your library account via the website. All you need is a library card and a PIN that you get at the library. It is your key to your personal account and our services online.

Terms for children and under 18s

You can join the library and get a free library card the year you turn 6 years old. A parent or guardian must give their permission by signing the application form. Take care of your library card and store it safely. The card is personal, only you should use it. A replacement card will cost 10 SEK for children. Before you turn 18 there is no cost if you return a book late or if it is damaged.

Terms for adults

It is free to borrow media from the library with the exception of rental DVDs that may only be borrowed by adults. It is free to join the library. If you lose your card a replacement card will cost 50 SEK for adults. The loan period is 4 weeks for books and audiobooks and 2 weeks for magazines. You can renew your loans on the library's website or in the lending machines at the library.

All library staff are bound by professional secrecy. This means that no one other than yourself can find out what items you have ordered or what items you borrow. Only items you have at home or have ordered will be available on your account. When you return the items they will be deleted from your account.

Reservation fees

10:- for each week the book is overdue

5:- per day for short-term loans and magazines

50:- maximum fine amount for one media (+eventual reminder fee)

100:- maximum fine amount of several media borrowed at the same time

10:- daily fine amount for rental DVDs

100:- maximum fine amount for one rental DVD

300:- maximum fine amount for several rental DVDs borrowed at the same time
